100% Grass Fed Lamb

Raised entirely on pasture, lambs eat fresh forages and their mothers' milk. Lambs are sold by the half or whole. A whole lamb will yield about 20-40 pounds of meat. A whole lamb can be shared between friends. Stock your freezer with the healthiest, freshest meat you can buy. Each lamb is butchered to your specifications. Lambs will be delivered to the Brooklyn Kitchen in late November/early December. A deposit is required to reserve your lamb.
